

A Tither's Confession

I confess this day to You, Lord God, that I come into the inheritance which You swore to give me. I am in the land which You have provided for me in Jesus Christ, the kingdom of Almighty God. I was a sinner serving Satan—he was my god. But I called upon the Name of Jesus and He heard my cry and delivered me from the power and authority of darkness and translated me into the kingdom of Your dear Son.

Jesus, as my Lord and High Priest, I bring the first fruits of my income to You and worship God with it. I rejoice in all the good which You have given to me and my household. I have hearkened to the voice of the Lord my God and have done according to all that You have commanded me. Now I believe You will look down from Your holy habitation in heaven and bless me as You said in Your Word. And I receive Your blessing as I come in the name of a tither. I expect these things to take place.

I confess that the window of heaven is being opened. Blessings are being poured out—there's not enough room to receive it! Surely I will shout, "It is enough! It is enough!" God Himself has rebuked the devourer for my sake. The fruit of my ground will not be destroyed. My vine won't cast fruit before the time. Nations will call me blessed. I will be a delightsome land. Today I am experiencing God's supernatural increase and I walk in it by faith. I call it done in Jesus' name, and Lord I worship You. (Deut. 26.)
